Dear Paul

Request to set expectation with entities on baseline savings options for Budget 2026

Thank you for your submissions for Budget 2026. I am looking forward to working with you on these in the coming months.

As you know, Budget 2026 is being prepared at a time when New Zealand is in a challenging fiscal position. Living within the Budget 2026 allowances will require us to make some difficult choices and trade-offs. My Budget 2026 invitation letter asked you to provide savings options to meet your baseline reduction target of 2 per cent.

I have now reviewed your submitted savings initiatives for the Ministry for Culture and Heritage's baseline saving target. I note that the source of savings is yet to be confirmed for some affected entities due to these savings being determined independently by each entity's board.

I consider there is a risk that the boards may make decisions to achieve these savings that could impact the delivery of Crown entity statutory functions.

I request that you, and the Minister for Sport and Recreation, set expectations with your respective entities, that any savings should be delivered through reducing non-essential activities and back-office functions and, where possible, should not impact statutory functions. Should there be a risk that this is not feasible for any given entities, I request that you direct your officials to provide further information on the risks and impacts of the savings to the Treasury for their awareness by 1pm, Friday 27 March.

Yours sincerely
